Year	Title	Author (Last)	First Line
1933	Alone	Poe	From childhood's hour I have not been
1946	The Conqueror Worm	Poe	Lo! 't is a gala night
1927	Acquainted with the Night	Frost	I have been one acquainted with the night.
1819	Ode on a Grecian Urn	Keats	Thou still unravish'd bride of quietness,
1819	Ode to a Nightingale	Keats	My heart aches, and a drowsy numbness pains
1922	The Wasteland	Eliot	April is the cruellest month, breeding
1920	Gerontion	Eliot	Here I am, an old man in a dry month,
1854	To Think of Time	Whitman	To think of time—of all that retrospection!
1855	This Compost	Whitman	Something startles me where I thought I was safest,
1950	I measure every Grief I meet	Dickinson	I measure every Grief I meet
1890	A Day	Dickinson	I'll tell you how the sun rose, —
1962	Those Winter Sundays	Hayden	Sundays too my father got up early
